

COWBOY ACTION SHOOTING© 101

- Thinking about trying Cowboy Action Shooting©?
- Wondering what equipment you need?
- Reluctant to invest in unfamiliar equipment?
- Never heard of it, but it sounds like fun?

If you are interested in the fast growing sport of Cowboy Action Shooting© here is your opportunity to find out what it's all about.

The Tri-City Shooting association (TCSA), in conjunction with the Rattlesnake Gulch Rangers, is hosting an introductory Cowboy Action Shooting© class where you will:

Learn the rules and equipment requirements

Try the guns used in competition*

Shoot a typical course of fire*

Find out when and where to compete locally

(*Guns and ammo will be provided)

WHEN: Saturday, March 10 at 10:00AM

WHERE: Rattlesnake Mountain Shooting Facility,
Cowboy/Pistol Range (Hwy 225, mile 7.75)

HOW MUCH: $20 ($15 to TCSA members, under 18 free)

RESTRICTIONS: Under 18 must be accompanied by parent or guardian.
Eye and ear protection required (we have ear plugs and loaner safety glasses, sizes & styles limited)

Send your completed registration form with funds to: Rattlesnake Gulch Rangers, at PO Box 842, Richland, WA 99352.

Additional information or questions: Call Mike Ensminger at 509-628-0889

- Advance Registration is Required – Participation is limited

NAME(S): _____

ADDRESS: _____ CITY: _____ ST: _____ ZIP: _____

PHONE: _____ E-Mail: _____ TOTAL ENCLOSED: _____